

Grace Olivares

Director of Community Empowerment
Univision - Houston

Over a span of two decades, via public service programs, educational campaigns, and community involvement and service, Grace Olivares has enriched the lives of thousands of people. As Director of Community Empowerment for Univision Houston Local Media, Grace heads a year-round empowerment platform focusing on raising awareness and disseminating important information about education, health, financial literacy, civic engagement and culture/diversity. Currently, Grace serves on the Mayor's Hispanic Advisory Board, Houston Hispanic Forum, the University of Houston's Center for Mexican American Studies, and the Miller Theatre Advisory Board. She is also a member of the American Leadership Forum Class XXVII and BakerRipley's Leadership Committee.

