Dear League Supporter:

As you know, the League of Women Voters of Houston Education Fund has a long, honorable and well-earned history of encouraging civic engagement throughout the Houston community. We are scrupulously non-partisan and never endorse any candidate or align with any political party. Our mission is simply to encourage full and informed participation by providing services, including; candidate forums, voter registration, informational publications and our popular Voters Guide to The Candidates, available in English, Spanish and Vietnamese. We anticipate adding a Chinese edition in 2019.

Since 2002, the League has honored distinguished individuals at our annual Repast luncheon. We are pleased to announce that the honorees for Repast 2019 are Texas State Representative Ana Hernandez, Harris County Judge Lina Hidalgo, former Houston City Council Member M.J. Khan, Univison’s Houston Director of Community Empowerment Grace Olivares, Executive Chef Hugo Ortega and Outreach Strategists Managing Director Mustafa Tameez. The centerpiece of our program will be an enjoyable and illuminating conversation among these outstanding immigrant Americans, guided by moderator Ernie Manouse of Houston Public Media.

Please join us as an event sponsor at this year’s Repast Luncheon Celebrating Immigrant Americans. Your generous involvement will help us celebrate the contributions and accomplishments of these outstanding immigrant Americans while supporting the work of the League of Women Voters Education Fund.
