Adjourn
Minutes of the 98th Annual Meeting
May 15, 2018

The meeting was called to order at 6:28 pm by President, Linda Cohn. A quorum of more than 24 members of the League was present.

Albert Benifeld was appointed Parliamentarian
Liza Alonzo was appointed Timekeeper
Isabel Longoria and Michelle Shabani were appointed as the committee to approve the minutes.
The Order of Business, as printed in the meeting workbook, was adopted by acclamation
The rules, as printed in the meeting workbook, were adopted by acclamation

Treasurer’s Report
The Treasurer, Leslie Taylor, was out of town. Zak Miller delivered the Treasurer’s report. He noted an overage due to the expanded printing requirements of the Voters Guide.

Local Issues: Study and Action
The VP of Study and Advocacy, Jeff Reichman, was unable to attend the meeting. President, Linda Cohn delivered the report, as written in the workbook, and added that studies are completely independent from outside influence and time must be taken to perfect it. The program of work was adopted by acclamation.

Bylaws Committee Report
Bylaws Committee Chair Nancy Parra presented the Bylaws Committee Report. Nancy noted that one recommended change was to have the officers take office at the beginning of the next fiscal year, as opposed to immediately, as this is what was occurring in practice. Nancy Parra moved that the bylaws committee report be adopted. Recommendations were adopted by acclamation.

Budget Committee Report
Budget Committee Chair Sharon Cunningham noted that the membership adopts the LWV-HA budget, but the trustees will adopt the Education Fund budget at their first meeting. Cunningham noted that the $3,936 deficit is partly owed to the LWV HA split of dues with LWV ed fund being removed this year, as Ed fund needed to cover the expense of the voters guide printing. Cunningham noted that our bookkeeper finds the LWV HA to be financially sound. The organization has funds to cover 3.5 years of operating costs (nonprofits are recommended to have at least 6 months of operating costs).

Awards and Appreciations
Judy Hollinger presented the report of the Awards Committee.
Five members who passed away were recognized: Henry Horne, Yvette Calloway, Patsy Cunningham, Hooker Wood, and Jeannie Kamrath Gonzalez
Two fifty year members were recognized – Laura Blackburn and Mary Dix.
Distinguished Achievement Awards – For Repast: Aimee Bertrand, Mary Benton and Lindsay Munoz; for Rising Stars program: Liza Alonzo, Isabel Longoria and Zak Miller
Sam Keeper Award for Excellence in Voter Services – Jackie Alfred (accepted by Jennie Tran on her behalf)
Helen Hunter Award – Ann Herbag

President’s Remarks
President, Linda Cohn, addressed the attendees. She thanked outgoing board members for their service and continued support of the League. She touted the League’s successes for the year and invited Aimee Woodall up to speak briefly about the communications plan for the coming year. Woodall conveyed that the League has a strong story and it needs to be told. Cohn noted that use of the association management firm, Manifest Creative, is amplifying League volunteers’ efforts and service to the community.

Report of the President
Linda Cohn

Welcome to the 99th Annual Meeting of the League of Women Voters of Houston. We gather today to celebrate another year of outstanding service, to affirm our civic mission and to talk about our plans for the years to come.

We are well on our way to a new organizational profile, operating as an entity to be known as the League of Women Voters of Houston. Our predecessor organizations, the League of Women Voters of the Houston Area and the League of Women Voters of Houston Education Fund are destined to become dormant. This refinement is in keeping with present regulations governing non-profits and with trends among local and state Leagues, offering the advantage of streamlined, efficient management and a public presence that more accurately reflects the scope of our work. In anticipation of this new day, our annual meeting will feature determinations on budget and other matters spanning the whole of our organization.

We continue to employ Manifest Creative as a provider of professional administrative services, allowing League leaders to work efficiently and effectively toward our civic engagement goals.

The Board of Directors has developed and adopted a Code of Conduct to guide our commitment to the highest standards of non-partisanship and civil deportment, to be presented at this Annual Meeting.

Our Vice President for Marketing, Aimee Woodall, has continued with a professional pro bono assessment of our mission/vision/values so that we can better understand what we are and what we can become. A new website, new tools for communication and refreshed branding are under development and will soon be launched in full.

As you review the reports of our several Committee Chairs and League Officers please take care to consider their assessments. We remain steadfastly attached to the idea that civic engagement is a proven path to a more perfect public life, and that, most certainly, remains our greatest strength. And especially as we approach our centennial year, please remember that we are living the suffragists’ dream.

Rising Stars Program
Chair: Michelle Shabani-Ritchel

The Rising Stars class was selected during the summer of 2018, in what proved to be a very competitive selection process. As in years’ past class members were invaluable in the search for qualified and interested candidates. As we open the applications for the incoming class, we will reach out to them again, as well as current LWV Houston members.

The applications were reviewed by four members of the 2017-2018 Rising Stars class; Board Member Phillip Yates, Franny Oxford, Dolores Colunga-Stawitz, and Michelle Shabani-Ritchel. In addition, Board Members Liza Alonzo, Isabel Longoria, and Zak Miller also participated in the candidate selection process. The diverse class was selected based on their previous community involvement, and their level of interest in continued participation in public service. A letter was sent out to each applicant letting them know whether they were accepted to the program, or not, in early September. The 15 chosen were invited to attend the Women's Equality Day celebration at Rice Media Center as guests of the LWV Houston. They were welcomed in a short ceremony at that event after presentation of the first Sarah Schimmer Award.

Continuing with the monthly leadership development workshop model from last year's class, there were several successful sessions which focused on LWV fundamentals. The regular monthly meetings consisted of VDVR Training, a session which focused on the history and creation of the Voters Guide with guest speaker Board Member Jackie Alfred, a session with guest speaker Board Member Jeff Reichman on the issues being studied by the LWV, and more. There were several opportunities for the Rising Stars to get involved in the League's activities immediately upon their admittance. By communicating with board members and the League president on a regular basis, much needed volunteer help for many of the League's activities came from among the current class members. From working with Mr. McKinney's History Bus on Election Day, participating in a Citizenship Ceremony, to being an integral part of the Repast Committee; the Rising Stars program has been an active part of much of the League's work this past year.

In addition, this year we added a Rising Stars Holiday Fundraiser to the program. With additional help from Board Member Amy Carl, several of the Rising Stars put this event together quickly and it turned out to be a great night of socialization and civic engagement at the Houston Arboretum. This new part of the Rising Stars program had the goals of getting the membership together to interact on a social basis, introduce the Rising Stars to long standing members, and of course raise money for the LWV Houston. We’re proud to announce that this fantastic event has been added to the curriculum for future classes, and we eagerly await the 2019 edition of this rousing success!

As the program continues new sessions will be developed to keep the overall program well-rounded and engaging. We will be focusing on getting the Rising Stars to continue participation throughout the year, by keeping the topics lively and engaging. We also want to continue building their participation with the League even after their class has concluded. This is always a challenge, as our volunteers are generally successful early to mid-career professionals with several commitments outside of the LWV.

To that end, the February class session was opened to former Rising Stars to come back and discuss what they had been doing since their time year ended, and how they are continuing to use the experience and knowledge gained during their time in the program. Two previous Rising Stars accepted the invitation, and it was one of the highlights of that session. This is something that will also be continued. The Rising Stars program will continue to help the participants grow in their civic engagement, foster the growth of the LWV Houston, and nurture the leaders of tomorrow.

Women’s Equality Day
Celebrating Women in STEM
Chairs: Annie Pope, Julia Retta, Liza Alonzo

This annual event honored three of Houston's most prominent women in STEM: Dr. Shannon Walker, NASA astronaut; Dr. Carolyn Sumners of the Houston Museum of Natural Science; and Samantha Snabes, aerospace entrepreneur. We also recognized the Rising Stars Class of 2018-2019 and hosted a special screening of the 2016 hit movie “Hidden Figures,” based on the real-life story of three remarkable African-American women, mathematicians who calculated trajectories at NASA in the 1950s and 1960s.

Rising Stars Holiday Social
Chairs: Kathryn Campbell, Amy Carl, Michelle Shabani-Ritchel

On Tuesday, December 18, 2018 the Rising Stars, League members and supporters gathered for a holiday social at the Houston Arboretum & Nature Center. Beer, wine and light bites were provided, courtesy of generous local sponsors, and the Rising Stars' own Katie Campbell led a special night hike for adventurous attendees. The event raised approximately $800 for the League of Women Voters Education Fund, which enables the League to serve Houston with indispensable, nonpartisan voter services, including voter registration, candidate debates, forums, and our popular Voters Guide to the Election and the Candidates.

The event would not have been possible without our generous sponsors: Houston Arboretum & Nature Center, Eureka Heights Brewing Company and Baker Noel. Eureka Heights donated several cases of locally-brewed craft beers, and Baker Noel's sweet treats didn't last long! A bit more about our generous host: The Houston Arboretum & Nature Center is a 155 acre nature preserve with 5 miles of hiking trails located on the western edge of Memorial Park. They are known for unique trails, wildlife viewing, opportunity to escape the hustle and bustle of city life, and for renowned educational programming. Find out more information about upcoming programs and fun events at www.houstonarboretum.org.

Repast
Chairs: Amber Burton, MaryJane Mudd

Our 18th Annual Repast Fundraising Luncheon will be held on May 29, 2019, this year celebrating the accomplishments of immigrant Americans. Our distinguished honorees are Lina Hidalgo, M. J. Khan, Ana Hernandez, Mustafa Tameez, Grace Olivares and Hugo Ortega. Repast 2019 is sold out as of press time. An addendum to this Annual Report will be added after the event.

HMS-TV Telecasts
Chair: Gene Preuss

LWV-Houston produces and hosts an hour-long public affairs program on the first Thursday of every month, telecast live from the studios of Houston Media Source.

On February’s show, education was our focus. The guests, Juliet Stipeche, Director of the Houston Mayor Sylvester Turner’s Office of Education; Lawrence A. Allen, Jr, a current member of the State Board of Education and Director of Special Projects for HISD; and former State Board of Education chair Thomas Ratliff, all have tremendous experience in public education at the local and state level. Their perspectives on funding and curriculum brought a wealth of experience to the program.

In March, the program dedicated the first segment of the show to the state’s efforts to remove almost 100,000 people from the Texas voter roles who were believed to be ineligible. Dr. Deborah Liles, PhD, a resident of North Texas whose registration status was in question; and Special Assistant County Attorney. Douglass Ray were the guests. The second part of the show was devoted to International Women’s Day events planned in the Houston area. Our guests Dan Stoecker and Noël Bezette-Flores of United Nations Association Houston told the panel about the upcoming festivities. Our guest hosts were attorney Graciela “Gracie” Saenz, Dr. David Branham, UHD Professor of Political Science and UHD Honors Program student Jocelyne Torres.

On the April program, we began by discussing women’s health issues with guest Evelyn Delgado, President of Healthy Futures Texas & Chair of the Texas Women’s Healthcare Coalition. For the second part of the program we discussed prejudice, bigotry, and hate crimes with Dr. Thomas E. Ford, professor of Social Psychology at Western Carolina University. Philip Yates, Vice President for Study and Advocacy, League of Women Voters Houston Area; Dr.
Heather Goltz, UHD Associate Professor of Social Work; and, Dr. Mari Nicholson, UHD Director of University Honors Program co-hosted the conversation.

On the May show, a panel discussion with Dr. Christina Hughes, Assistant Professor of Political Science, and Archie Gayle, University of Houston-Downtown Honors Student co-hosted the discussion with our two guests, Maisha Colter of Aid to Victims of Domestic Abuse, and Roxanne Werner of the Harris County Clerk’s Office. For the first half of the program, the panel talked about the very serious problem of Domestic Violence in Houston. For the second half of the program, the panel discussed a new way of voting at any open polling location on election day, and not just in your precinct, and other information about voting in Harris County.

On April 17, we co-hosted with BakerRipley’s Graciana “Graci” Garces a Conversations with the Candidates for Pasadena city council, including Steve Halvorson for District B; Don Harrison of District C; District E’s Cody Ray Wheeler, and Lori Laird and Thomas Schoenbein, both candidates for District H. UHD Honors Program student Archie Gayle also joined the conversation.

A full report and financial data will be presented at our Annual Meeting.

Report of the Vice President for Membership Affairs
Marisol Valero
Committee: Jill Campbell, Marissa Marquez, Ashley Shepherd, Phillip Yates, Heidi Tso

Goals:
1. Streamline membership on-boarding / orientation experience for new members.
2. Activate current members through volunteer opportunities and social interactive mixers
3. Increase LWV-HA’s membership to reflect Houston's demographics

Total membership as of 5/11/2019: 220

In 2018 we set out on a very ambitious agenda and with much hope to engage new and existing members however the reality was (and still is) that first, we must needed to know who was part of our membership and how they were seeking to become active members. There is currently zero data on demographics which disables us from properly planning events that are attractive to members. Without this information, we also don’t know how members like to receive news from us or any information really, that they’d like to receive.

Our board has undertaken an overhaul of issues we have found that have limited our reach to existing members and members of the general public. Thus our committee has been focusing on working with both the marketing and budget committees to ensure we address our needs. At the end of these projects the membership affairs committee will have the necessary tools to move forward with our goals effectively. Tools will include automated Welcome notices with information on onboarding dates for new members and opportunities to immediately plug in and volunteer, quick access to important information like our bylaws, and access to accurate resources for voting information and education.

As some of you may have noticed, neither a membership newsletter nor a membership directory was published this year. It was brought to our attention that we must centralize and streamline the communication that goes out to our membership as well as the frequency. So, it was determined that the newsletter was an ineffective way to communicate since there were other better and quicker ways that our membership was already receiving information. The membership directory was placed on pause until we can effectively ensure that all members have a decision in what information is shared about them. This is to address safety of all members since we don’t conduct background checks on people who join the league and the directory publishes home addresses. In the future, a member will be able to provide input upfront on what information can be shared with other members, until then, the directory will not be published.

Thank you all for your patience as our board and this committee continues to work on making our organization better equipped to lead our members in 2019. If you have any questions, please e-mail me at marisolvalero@lwvhouston.org.

Report of the Vice President for Issues: Study and Advocacy
Phillip Yates

The Board of Directors has recommended this course for the 2019-2020 League year:

1. Our Election Cybersecurity study, begun in 2017, will be concluded with a report at this Annual Meeting.
2. A proposed Environmental Study, with special reference to coastal issues, first activated in 2017, will become dormant.
3. Updating existing local positions will continue.

Report of the Vice President for Civic Engagement
Reda Hicks

In the 2018-2019 League year LWV-Houston has:

*conducted an on-the-spot voter registration service at all Houston Area Naturalization ceremonies, welcoming 22,007 new Americans to the electorate within minutes of their citizenship oath. This represents an 81% rate of response among those newly eligible.

*conducted a televised series of Conversations With The Candidates leading up to the November, 2018 general election. More than 1,300 viewers got to know local candidates through this televised series of Conversations.

*staffed an all-day viewer call-in telephone helpline at KPRC/Telemundo television for the 2018 general election, fielding over 2,200 individual election queries in both English and Spanish.

*compiled, published and distributed Voters Guides for the November general election in print, electronic and interactive formats, in English, Spanish and Vietnamese. Over 30,000 print copies of the Voters Guides were distributed to the general public at no cost via libraries, schools, universities, neighborhood centers and civic organizations as well as to sponsoring organizations. Non-profit and commercial media, universities and civic organizations embedded or referenced the Guide at their website, and everyone was, as always, invited to read, download, link and share.

*provided a build-your-personal-ballot website, VOTE411.org, featuring our Voters Guide content in an interactive format so voters could easily select the candidates whose policies most closely align with their own. In advance of the November, 2018 election, more than 81,000 earnest voters found impartial candidate information at www.VOTE411.org.

*served more than 23,000 visitors at our website, offering impartial information about the candidates via our legendary Voters Guide, published in English, Spanish and Vietnamese. In October, 2018 we reached an all-time high for website visits per month.

*maintained social media feeds tallying up to over 5,000,000 Election Season impressions with encouragement and essential information.

Voter Registration Report for 2018
Chair: Judy Hollinger

The LWV-HA sponsored and coordinated VR drives at 26 separate venues (some more than once) registering or reregistering (change of address) 583 voters.
High schools- 120 voters
Colleges- 229 voters

Voter Registration at Naturalization Ceremonies

Chair: Judy Viebig
Committee: Lauren Blanton, Rosalie Buggs, John Byrd, Beni Gutierrez, Judy Hollinger, Ann Wood

The number of petitioners for Naturalization increased significantly following the 2016 Presidential election. By May 2018, there were increases in the numbers of new voter registrations and also the number of enthusiastic new Volunteer Deputy Voter Registrars (DVRs).

To accommodate the increases in numbers, several League of Women Voters Naturalization DVRs teamed together to provide more structure to the Naturalization voter registration process. The current process involves a more formal written procedure, more extensive emailed information, a short required orientation training for new volunteers, and more oversight and follow-up.

The results of the efforts from June 2018 through April, 2019 are illustrated by the following:

Report of the Awards Committee
Chair: Jeff Reichman

This year, we are honored by the outstanding service of our League members. The awards cover the true diversity of activities and interests of our local league, from refreshing our public image to retooling our internal processes that make our League function. You'll recognize some familiar names and faces on the awards roster this year, but you'll also meet some new League members who are making a big entrance. In keeping with tradition, 2019 recipients will be revealed at the Annual Meeting.

Outstanding Achievement Awards are presented for notable accomplishment, recognizing individuals who, over the course of the League Year, have shepherded a significant program or project to great success. The number of Outstanding Achievement Awards is not limited but the Awards Committee takes great care to maintain the highest standards. These recognitions must remain a distinctive and meaningful honor.

The Helen Hunter Award was established in 1995 to honor Helen Hunter, LWV-Houston president from 1982-1985, and to recognize and encourage exemplary leadership. The Helen Hunter award is not presented every year, but rather only when the Awards Committee is able to identify a candidate of exceeding merit. The citation celebrates an individual who, over the course of League membership, has epitomized the exemplary spirit of Helen Hunter in furthering the mission of the League of Woman Voters in a cordial, steady and effective way; who has brought great credit to the League of Women Voters of Houston; and who has thereby brought great benefit to the community we serve.

The Awards Committee is pleased to recall this honor roll of Helen Hunter Award recipients:

1995 Claudia Kemond
1996 Melba Drake
1997 Margaret Kolodzie
1998 Mary Gillette
2002 Bette John
2003 Alice May Berthelsen
2004 Jan Wilbur
2005 Barb Swartz
2006 Gwen Essinger
2008 Judy Hollinger
2009 Millie Whittington
2010 Linda Cohn
2011 Sharon Cunningham
2012 Nany Parra
2013 Jacqueline Alfred
2015 Tom Berg
2016 Novelle Doherty

2017 Laura Blackburn
2018 Ann Herbage
The Sam Keeper Award for Excellence in Voter Services was established by Board resolution in 2015 in honor of Sam, The Voter Man, our beloved Voter Registration chair. Beni Gutierrez and Mary Titus shared the inaugural Sam Keeper Award in 2016 in recognition of their fine work in registering newly naturalized Americans. In 2017 the Sam Keeper Award was shared by Judy Viebig, Pam Gaskin, Reda Hicks and Claudia Ortega Hogue. Accomplishments, Observations, and Recommendations

Working with the Board, the Committee developed a new Board member application which worked quite well. Two new questions are particularly useful. They gather information as to the applicant’s areas of expertise and which League activities the individual thinks are a good match for her/his skills.

I attended several Board, Executive Committee and other meetings to better understand the organization’s needs. The Nominating Committee worked well together, sharing the various tasks. Few face-to-face meetings or telephone conferences were required. Most communication was via email. Each candidate was interviewed. I relied heavily on the others in this regard as I was ill some and my dear husband George died. Everyone was very helpful. Jeff and Liza, as current Board members, were a valuable resource.

This has been a strong and stable Board year in which much work was accomplished. The Executive Committee, the Marketing Committee, and other committees were utilized to high accomplishment, especially by strengthening the structure of the organization. The Board Manual was updated, giving us current position descriptions.

The change in the Bylaws to allow for a flexible fifth vice president position is applauded. Now, each year, the Board can name one vice president to serve for one year and focus on the organization’s most demanding current need.

To effectively accomplish the 2019-2020 agenda, we recommend that all levels of the organization – Membership, Rising Stars, and the Board actively recruit, orient and develop their members. We strongly recommend the continued use of committees.

In this fast-paced world with many career and volunteer opportunities, we are thankful for the commitment of our officers and Board members.
