

Recently moved within Texas or Harris County? You can still vote!

What is a Limited Ballot

A limited ballot contains only those races and ballot issues that are common across multiple jurisdictions. It enables those who have recently changed their permanent address to vote in certain races.

A person who is entitled to vote a limited ballot may vote on all statewide races and any district offices that are in common between their former and new addresses and/or counties of residence.

Time for Casting Limited Ballot

Voters may vote using this limited ballot procedure only during the early voting period, which is Monday, October 24, 2022 through Friday, November 4, 2022 for the November 8, 2022 General Election.

- In-Person: A person may vote a limited ballot in person only at the main early voting location.
- By Mail: If the voter is requesting a limited ballot by mail, the voter must be eligible under Chapter 82 of the Code to vote by mail. The voter must follow all required ballot by mail instructions when requesting and returning their ballot by mail.

If you have questions, call the Office of the County Election Administrator: 713.755.6965.

Who is Eligible to Use a Limited Ballot

1) Registered voters who have moved within the same County where they are registered:

You may vote a full ballot in accordance with your former precinct details. Failure to update your address information will affect your ability to vote in future elections. You will be able to vote in your new precinct 30 days after your notice has been received by the Office of the Harris County Election Administrator.

2) Registered voters who have moved to a different County in Texas:

A registered voter who has moved from the county in which he or she is registered to a new county of residence in Texas, and who did not update their voter registration by the registration deadline and therefore will not be registered to vote in the new county on or before November 8, 2022 may be eligible to vote a "limited ballot" in their new county of residence in the upcoming November 8, 2022 General Election under the following conditions:

- The person seeking to vote a limited ballot would be eligible to vote in the former county of residence on election day if still residing there;
- The person seeking to vote a limited ballot is registered to vote in the former county of residence at the time the person (1) offers to vote in the new county of residence or (2) applies for registration in the new county; and
- The person's voter registration is not effective in the new county of residence on or before Election Day.

NOTE: You should plan to update your voter registration in your new County as soon as possible. Failure to register in your new county of residence will affect your ability to vote in future elections.